

Our village is renowned for its open, welcoming atmosphere, historically characterized by unobstructed vistas and a harmonious relationship between private properties and public spaces. Gate design should not create a visual barrier and evoke feelings of exclusivity that are incongruous with our Village's traditions of farming, open land and connectivity. Gate designs should feel open, welcoming and provide a harmonious relationship between private properties and public spaces.

SAGAPONACK GATE STYLE GUIDE

